Shopping, Eating & Having A Great Time

THANK YOU TALBOTS AND ALDEN PARK FOR A FABULOUS EVENING
Written By Jonathan Pappalardo

The most recent Trailside Living event was a wonderful evening of shopping at Talbots and eating at Alden Park with Pinehills residents and business sponsors. We extend a big thank you to Talbots for offering residents a 25 percent off discount so they could kick off the summer season in style before jetting over to Alden Park to catch up with neighbors and friends.

Events manager Brian Gratton hosted us in the brand new function room, a space six years in the making. Although the room was set up for 80 people, it can easily accommodate upwards of 150 or more. Gratton says the room, which had just opened for their Kentucky Derby party, will have a separate kitchen and already has a private bar and bathroom.

Jean Francis and Ed Brennan, the bride and groom who were recently featured on the cover hadn't attended one of these events before. They had a wonderful time. Jean observed, "The bar is the place to be tonight."

The food was spectacular. Chef Adnilson Oliveira prepared a fabulous mix of appetizers — Beef wrapped in bacon with barbecue sauce, shrimp wontons, chicken dumplings, Thai chicken spring rolls, coconut shrimp, cheese stuffed pastry, meatball and pasta skewers, cheese flatbread, fried avocado, raspberry puff pastry, fries in a Chinese takeout box with ketchup and lamb lollipops with pesto. Everything was simply delicious.

Elizabeth Iannucci, who owns the medical supply store, Therap-Ease, in Plymouth, came to the event with her partner Andre. "The fried avocado was really good," she said. Andre, who is never full, was more than satisfied. "I'm from Australia and the lamb was the best I've had. It was excellent."

We're always planning more events. Look for announcements in upcoming issues of Trailside Living and be sure to RSVP by emailing Katriena Devlin at KDevlin@n2pub.com in order to hold your spot. Our next event is June 28 at The Farmer's Table. We hope to see you there to meet new people and reconnect with friends.

A big thank you to everyone at Alden Park for hosting such a fabulous event for Trailside Living readers. Check out their menu at aldenpark.com and be sure to inquire about using their 40' mobile catering kitchen or 22' food truck, Alden Park-ed, for your next event at a mobile location of your choice!

Hope to see you June 28 at The Farmer's Table, located at 1 Green-side Way North!
